- 4. The export of meat to the Soviet Union is directed and co-ordinated by the central board of Husex Meat and Export Co., which is located at Soroksari ut 33., Budapest, IX. The manager of this concern is Tibor Jo, allegedly a veterinary surgeon, holding the rank of veterinary general councilor. This Husex board has missions in Csepel, Székesfehérvár, Sárvár, Békéscsabaand Cegléd.
- 5. The meat is delivered to the Soviet authorities in two ways; firstly, before the meat is cut up in this case it is sent to special plants for the processing; and secondly, meat is delivered for Soviet control immediately before shipment.
- 6. Any meat which is not acceptable to the Soviet receiving officers has to be replaced from Hungarian domestic supplies; the refrigeration plants are held responsible for the quality of all the meat supplied.
